Historical Context:

The stables in the U plan are present on the 1:2500 OS map of 1897 (but not on the 1880). The eastern range with the coach house do not appear until the 1910 OS (1:2500).

An interesting group which appear to relate to a series of houses rather than one single house.

These buildings are of special local interest as increasingly rare building types of relatively simple construction and detailing. Their local vernacular interest is high and they have evidential and historical value.
