Historical Context:

Manor Park was purchased by the Council in 1919. In the 'Heroes' Garden', a First World War Memorial garden, is a rough granite block is inscribed 'Their Name liveth for Evermore, 1914-19'. The statue is positioned within the walled sunken 'Heroes' Shrine and Rock Garden, Aldershot's National Memorial to the Second World War opened in 1950. The rockeries are created with stones from bombed buildings from 18 cities and 34 boroughs including Coventry Cathedral, and the Tower of London. The Portland stone statue is carved from a block rejected by Sir Christopher Wren in the building of St Paul's Cathedral.

The memorial was constructed by Messrs. Perryman & Co of Woking at a cost of £3,200. The inscriptions on the statue and stones was carried out by Messrs. E. Finch & Sons of High Street.

This statue is included on the List of Buildings of Local Significance due to its high historic, aesthetic and community values.

Further comments:

Nose broken off figure should be replaced. Sulphur deposits on stone. Graffiti in places. Concrete plinth has cracking but is stable. Concrete paving stones are a mixture of old and new, replacements not of the same specification and are poorly laid with wide joints and different coloured mortar.
