Historical Context:

Appears on the 1888 (1:2500) first ed. Ordnance Survey map, but probably dates to around the date of construction of the Prince of Wales PH – mid 19th century.

Included for its evidential and historic significance and local interest and is an historic building which makes a positive contribution to the character and appearance of the Farnborough Hill Conservation Area.

Forms a group with the separately locally listed Prince of Wales Public House (LL5137).
