Pair of Semi-detached Villas. Formerly part of the Badajos and Salamanca Barracks. C1890. Yellow stock brick in stretcher bond with hipped and gabled natural slate roof with decorative terracotta roof tiles. String course of buff terracotta nailheads between the ground and first floor. 'H' plan formed by the symmetrical plan of the villas - central range with two wings to the north and south. South elevation are principal elevations and face the garden space (now enclosed - but formerly open to a southern aspect). South elevation; gabled to each projecting wing to east and west which enclose symmetrically placed pyramidal roofs projecting square bays. Further single canted bay to west elevation. Five large brick stacks to both eaves and ridge. North elevation some evidence of extension to the western projecting wing and flat roof extension to easternmost wing. Windows are mostly replacement Upvc but with surviving York stone cills. Included on the Local List as a building of architectural quality and local interest and remnant survival of the once extensive Badajos and Salamanca Barracks. Condition Survey: 1 - 5  1 Very Bad 2 Poor 3 Fair 4 Good 5 Excellent
