Headquarters, post 1930s. Long rectangular block similar in plan to Australia Block (to the eastern edge of the group) but with two projecting ranges to the north. Forms an important part of the Thornhill Barracks group. Red brick in stretcher bond and hipped natural slate roof with red clay ridge tiles. Eight windows arranged symmetrically (four each side) around the projecting hipped porch with plain undecorated columns with square bases. Modern timber door. Windows have exposed flush frames and are vertical sliding timber framed sashes with horns (multi-pane - six over nine).

Historical Context:
