School. C1895. Red brick (in stretcher bond) and natural slate hipped roof. Two identical rectangular blocks mirrored in plan linked by a later corridor. Both blocks; Two Storey 4 window range to each with projecting moulded string course between ground and first floor. Deep dentil cornice to hipped roof with decorative ridge tiles. Large chimney stack set centrally. Unusual design to windows; Tall sashes with glazing bars (six over six) with a bottom hung tilting casement above for ventilation. Those to side elevations are shorter but of the same configuration. To each block set centrally to the first floor, a stone carved plaque set in a frame of pilasters with pediment; that to the west inscribed 'GIRLS' and to the east 'BOYS'. Late 20th century timber-framed entrance and modern railings complement the existing buildings.

A good survival of a purpose built school remaining in its original use. The school forms a group with Clocktower House to the west (also locally listed).
